

THE AUTHENTIC LEADER

THE AUTHENTIC LEADER

with Dr. Harold Hillman

- Can you benefit from a day of personal reflection on your growth as a leader?
- Is it time to be more purposeful with your leadership?
- Does your professional brand incorporate enough of the real you?
- Is your comfort zone too comfortable? Is it time for you to build new skills and ways of thinking?
- Are there any obstacles blocking your professional growth that you need to confront?
- Have you been promoted to a new role which requires you to lead differently?
- Would building deeper connections with others allow you to become a more effective leader?

Participant Reviews

Speak, discuss openly and be vulnerable! It is a marvelous experience and a huge learning curve.

TAL is completely unlike any generic leadership course. It challenges you to think outside your comfort zone. Thoroughly recommended if you fear vulnerability!

It is a great day to explore what authenticity means in business. Be prepared to take what you learn on the day and apply it in your business....or in your life.

This programme is not about leadership formulas. It's more about taking the time to really understand who you are and what you stand for.

Harold and the group created a very supportive forum to share and open up about who we want to be as leaders. I will definitely make some changes based on what I learned.

This day out to be coached and invest in personal reflection is one of the most valuable gifts you can receive. Make the time.

Harold Hillman Ph.D.

Leadership Coach / Author / Radio Commentator
/ NZ Herald Contributor

Harold Hillman is the Managing Director of Sigmoid Curve Consulting Group, a company he launched in December 2006. Sigmoid specialises in tools and frameworks that help executive teams lead their organisations through major change with a collective sense of ownership and commitment to strong results. Since change really is the only constant in business, developing the capability to lead it, rather than be led by it, is the true hallmark of successful and enduring organisations.

Over the past two decades, as both a senior executive and external coach, Hillman has coached a number of prominent chief executives and their teams in the US, Australia, New Zealand and Singapore. Hillman's client organisations have included Kraft Foods, Fonterra, Genesis Energy, Sealord, FMG, Refining NZ, Bank of New Zealand, National Australia Bank, TVNZ, Auckland Council, New Plymouth District Council, Air New Zealand, Southern Cross Healthcare, University of Melbourne, and Duke University (USA).

Hillman's career highlights include:

- Assistant Professor and Director, Leadership Programs at the US Air Force Academy, Colorado
- Dean and General Manager, Amoco Marketing University, Amoco Corporation, Chicago
- Vice President, Executive Development, Prudential Financial, New York

- Corporate Vice President & Chief Learning Officer, Prudential Financial, New York
- Global HR Director [interim] and Director, Talent & OD, Fonterra Co-operative Group, Auckland

Hillman earned a Master's Degree in Education from Harvard University and a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Pittsburgh (USA). With a strong belief that the best leaders are also the most skilled learners, Hillman coaches business leaders and executive teams to explore what is really required to drive deeper levels of engagement.

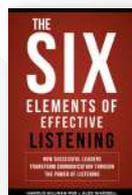

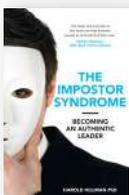

Hillman is frequently invited to deliver keynote speeches and presentations at conferences in the arena of leadership, talent and human capital. His first book, The Impostor Syndrome, was named Whitcoulls Business Book of the Year 2013. Hillman's second book, Fitting In, Standing Out, was published in August 2015. The Six Elements of Effective Listening was Hillman's third book, published in 2016 as an e-book through Smashwords. His latest book will be released in July 2021 with a timely title: EMPATHY: Making it Real for Leaders in a Post-COVID World.

Hillman frequently provides leadership commentary on Magic Talk. You can also view his regular contributions to the NZ Herald's business online edition.

“The beautiful thing about integrity is that you get to bring all the multi-faceted dimensions of your whole self into one single person.”
